

Second Skin For Your Laptop

A snake about to shed its skin is referred to as being “in the blue”. A laptop that has its lid painted in boring greyish factory colours is known as being “in the grey”. And just as it is necessary for a snake’s health to shed its skin, it is vital for any self-respecting laptop to get a custom design lid cover.

With minimum effort, you can give new look to your Travelmate or Pavilion and set yourself apart from the crowd. If it doesn’t sound like much, you can brand it with your corporate logo or initials.

There are several companies doing laptop skins. But www.smart-parts.net seems to be the main one on that side of the Pond. The contrast between technology and nature is what makes these skins so amazing to look at
